

"INDIA-CENTRAL EUROPE BUSINESS FORUM"

27-28 March 2014

FICCI Federation House | Tansen Marg, New Delhi 110001

The first in the series, this business forum will focus on promoting multifaceted industry engagement with highly promising Central European economies.

Why? With the bilateral trade between India and select CE countries standing over USD 50 billion in 2012-13 and its promising potential consumer base of over 500 mn, the future augurs well for India and the region to significantly enhance their trade and economic synergies. The technological excellence, new innovations across sectors coupled with highly skilled workforce in CE countries is optimally matched by a fast transforming and resurgent Indian economy. The initiative, therefore intends to accelerate business complementarities between India and Central European Countries for realising mutual gains in years to come.
